

Julie Kuenstle
VP of Communications
713.870.0304

Live, Behind-The-Scenes of Animal Rescue at the Houston SPCA

Grab a Front Row Seat on Giving Tuesday, November 30 @HoustonSPCA

Houston SPCA Video here

HOUSTON (November 29, 2021) – Each year on Giving Tuesday, which is always the Tuesday after Thanksgiving, non-profit organizations reach far and wide to people who want to make a difference by supporting a cause, such as the Houston SPCA. That's why the city's first and largest animal welfare organization will be on FB Live all day to give viewers a behind-the-scenes look around their campus including triage and surgery; ride along with an Animal Cruelty Investigator and catch the award-winning Equine and Farm Animal Team hard at work in the Equine Care Center. They will also have a few notable Houstonians throughout the day who will share how and why they support Giving Tuesday.

Tuesday, November 30 – Facebook Live- @HoustonSPCA

- 8 a.m. Veterinary Services
- 9 a.m. Lisa Hernandez, one of Houston's well-known Rescue Dog Moms & Advocate
- 9:30 a.m. Equine and Rescue Center
- 10 a.m. Adoptions
- 11 a.m. Foster
- 12 – 3 p.m. Ride along with an Animal Cruelty Investigator
- 2:30 p.m. Wildlife Center of Texas
- 3 p.m. Transfer Programs
- 4 p.m. Houston Texans punter Cameron Johnston and wife Tia
- 5 p.m. Special message from Jo Sullivan, Chief Community and Development Officer

The Houston SPCA is a private, 501(c) (3) organization and is not tax-supported, affiliated with any local or national organization and relies solely on donations. Please consider giving to the Houston SPCA on Giving Tuesday, November 30.

#

7007 Old Katy Road / Houston, TX 77024 / 713.869.SPCA (7722) / HoustonSPCA.org