Eureka Heights Brewery to Host Betty White Celebration of Life Benefitting the Houston SPCA

HOUSTON (January 10, 2022) – Actress and animal advocate Betty White not only left her immeasurable impact on Hollywood but her lifelong passion for animals as well. Local Houston brewery, Eureka Heights, will host a Celebration of Life in memory of the ‘Golden Girl’ on Friday, January 14, from 3 p.m. to 9 p.m. with proceeds benefitting the Houston SPCA.

The special event is a few days before what would have been White’s 100th birthday and supports the #BettyWhiteChallenge recently shared widely on social media to encourage supporting local animal shelters in White’s name.

Eureka Heights Brewery will continue to round up patron’s tap purchases through the end of January for the city’s oldest and largest animal protection organization in White’s honor.
