HOUSTON (February 5, 2026) – Looking for a committed and loyal relationship? This Valentine's weekend, Houston SPCA invites the community to open their hearts and homes to a pet in need with a special offer. Adult dogs and cats are available for $14 which includes a comprehensive adoption package. To make the weekend event even sweeter, each adopter will receive a red rose and a Houston SPCA pet bandana.

The $14 adoption package includes a health exam, microchip, spay or neuter surgery, most current vaccinations, a sample bag of Hill's Pet Nutrition pet food and a complimentary post-adoption exam at VCA Animal Hospital.

Regular adoption fees for adult dogs and cats at the Houston SPCA typically range from $35 to $105.

The Extra Benefits of Pet Adoption That We Love ❤️

- Boosts Heart Health: Pet ownership can help lower blood pressure and encourage physical activity, reducing the risk of heart disease.
- Reduce Stress: Spending time with pets lowers stress hormones and increases feelings of calm and happiness.
- Encourages Daily Movement: Walking and playing with pets promote regular activity and healthier daily routines.

Adoption counselors will be available to help find the right match based on lifestyle and compatibility. The following tips from the Houston SPCA can help you determine if your heart is ready for adoption.

The Valentine's Weekend Pet Adoption Event will be held Saturday, February 14, and Sunday, February 15, from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the Houston SPCA Adoption Center, 7007 Old Katy Road, Houston, TX 77024.
